All is vanity. — Uncontrolable. — Something fleeting and elusive. (Lasting for a very short amount of time, passing of disappearing quickly.) (Difficult to find, catch, grasp, or define.)

All things that bring us pleasure on Earth are only temporary.
(A feeling of happy satisfaction.) (Not permanent)

Everything past will/shall be forgotten, it doesn't matter.

Human toil (Long, hard, and exausting work.), earthly pleasures, status, and material wealth are all temporary, elusive, and ultimately meaningless...

When persued as the highest goal apart from God.

Ecclesiastes 1:18 "For in much wisdom is much greif, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow." (an intense, deep emotional state of sadness, loss, or regret.)

As a person gains deeper understanding of the world, the become aware of how broken, corrup, and failing it is. (lacking moral integrity, dishonest, damaged.)

Realizing how the world truly works strips away simple, carefree illusions. (a state of superficial happiness, naive freedom, ore untroubled innocence.)

Ecclesiastes 2:14-15 "The wise person has his eyes in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. And yet, I perceived the same events happen to all of them. "What happens to the fool also happens to the wise, so why then have I been so very wise"?"

Although both meet the same fate, the wise live a better, more stable of life. This does not promise, however, a pain-free life. through knowledge comes pain.

(Because being wise is better than being a fool. Just as light is better than darkness.)

Ecclesiastes 3:1 "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." — under the sun.

a time, event, or situation that is suitable or right for a particular action.

There is an appropriate occasion for every human event.

Ecclesiastes 3:11 "He has made everything beautiful in its time"

God orchestrates all events, seasons, and circumstances with soveirgn purpose, divine plan. It all fits into a well-ordered, His absolute power, supreme authority, and wise goverence over all creation to accomplish his ultimate will.

Ecclesiastes 3:17 "God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for there is a time for every matter and for every work."

What happens to one, happens to all. God will judge everyone in time, even the most righteous. — A principle of shared fate.

Ecclesiastes 3:22 "So I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his work, for that is his lot, who can bring him to see what will be after him?"

Your current life, abilities, and work are your gift from God, so you should appreciate these gifts rather than obsessing over somthing you cannot change. Out of our control. — A current situation that is un-predictable.

The wisest path is to find joy in the daily work you do now, because you cannot predict nor control the future. Live in the now that God has gifted you. — The time, condition, or events that come after the present.

Somthing voluntarily given from one person to another without any need for compensation. — GOD

Ecclesiastes 4:6 "Better is a handful of quietness then two handfulls of toil and striving after the wind."

The envy of ones neighbor.

A content life.

A simple, peaceful life with modest means is far better than a life spent chasing wealth and status.

A life full of envy.

Ecclesiastes 4:9 "Two is better than one, they have reward for good toil."

Ecclesiastes 5:15 "As he came from his mothers womb he shall go again, naked as he came, and shall take nothing for his toil that he may carry away in his hand."

you take nothing worldly with you to heaven.

The complete absence of anything.

Everyone enters and leaves the world with nothing, unable to carry any material wealth or the results of their labor.

Ecclesiastes 6:8 "For what advantage does the wise man over the fool?"

A condition, circumstance, or feature that gives someone or somthing a better chance of success or supiriority.

Both the wise and foolish, the rich and the poor, share identicle fundamental expiriences and mortality apart from God.

Free from a rule, duty, or requirement that applies to others.

Wisdom, wealth, and social status exempt noone from basic physical needs, limitations, and death.

Requirements that the human body must satisfy to survive.

A rule, condition, or weakness that restricts what is possible.

Ecclesiastes 9:9 "Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life that he has given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil which you toil under the sun."

A specific share, section, or period of time expirienced within a larger span of time.

Enjoy your portion of life god has given you, and all the gifts he has given to you in it, no matter how simple.

Ecclesiastes 10:10 "but wisdom helps one to succeed."

Using wisdom, preperation, and proper methods acheives more success than foolishness, ore doing somthing for an unknown reason.

Ecclesiastes 10:20 "Even in your thoughts do not curse the king nor in your bedroom curse the rich, for a bird of the air will carry your voice or some winged creature tell the matter."

Even when seemingly useless, extend your wisdom.

Ecclesiastes 11:9 "Walk in the ways of your heart and the sight of your eyes, but know that for all these things, God will bring you judgement."

Follow your hearts desires, but for the choices you make you will be held accountable. — Being responsible for your actions, decisions, or policies, and being expected to accept the consequences when time comes.

Ecclesiasted 12:13-14 "Fear God and keep his commandments, for God will bring every deed into judgement."
